Founded in 2006, MindPetal partners with federal leaders to solve complex mission challenges through secure digital transformation, advanced data analytics, and AI-driven solutions. We have strengthened and modernized high-impact federal systems, delivering results where complexity and scale demand disciplined execution.

Today, we support more than a dozen federal agencies with intelligent automation, predictive analytics, DevSecOps, and secure cloud architectures that improve operational efficiency and mission performance. Our 2023 acquisition of VerticalApps expanded our AI/ML and data engineering capabilities, accelerating our ability to deploy responsible, scalable AI solutions across the federal enterprise.

With a team of 150 experts, we design and implement smart, secure digital and AI-powered systems that address today's priorities while preparing agencies for the next era of innovation.

Beyond our federal mission, MindPetal is committed to community impact, actively supporting children-focused organizations such as Childhelp and Ronald McDonald House Charities, reinforcing our belief that leadership and technology should create opportunity for the next generation.
